cheap other
oh no!

space for drawing if applicable

I have chosen this song because when I first came across Lambkin I realised that there was something truly boundary-pushing/amazing beautiful/casual anti-music/sound to wind up music so left-field it hurts, exquisite, ~~casual~~ brilliant, able to excite Stuart Gordon inordinately, working class, gorgeous, & just liked it...

← DRAWING ACTIONS (for QPRC)

- rip up bits of paper, drop on paper that stick down and scribble over the top! Why!? Fuck sake
- just draw i.e. this is the one I always do because having a 'strategy' is so fucking posh and annoying...
- cry onto paper at a sad song
- write some (or) relevant words and pretend that writing is drawing enough
- photocopy this page ditto
- conceptualise it to death
- kill Pat a Learner so I don't have to do it
- write a self-conscious list...
- make love to a love song with a bit of paper wrapped around my crotch (or masturbate!)
- do an anal little pencil drawing of the youtube page of my chosen song hahahaha
- draw a chicken (naked it)
