all i have chosen this song because when i first came across country i realised that here was some truly beautiful pure music/sound to wind up around to left-field it hurts exquisite exclusively brilliant

< drawing actions (for QPR)

→ rip up bits of paper, keep on paper that stick down and scramble over the top! why?

flakes

→ just draw i.e. this is the way i always do because having a 'strategy' is so fucking pesky and annoying...

→ cry onto paper at a sad song

→ write some (ir)relevant words and pretend that writing is drawing enough

→ photocopy this page into

→ conceptualise it to death

→ kill a leanne so i don't have to do it

→ write a self-conscious list to a love song

→ make love with a bit of paper wrapped around my cock (or masturbate)

→ do an awful little pencil drawing of the youtube page of my chosen song

→ draw a chicken (marked it)
